In Loving Memory of: Late Shri Pandurangji Tulaskar saheb

Date: Monday 8th October 2025

Venue: Pandurang Tulaskar Group of Institute, Balaji Town, Hinganghat

Associates: HDFC Bank (Jeevan Jyoti Blood Bank), Rotary Club Hinganghat, Red Ribbon Club, NSS Unit

To honor the noble legacy of Late Shri Pandurangji Tulaskar, the Pandurang Tulaskar Group of Institutions organized a Blood Donation Camp on 8 October 2025. The event was conducted in collaboration with HDFC Bank (Jeevan Jyoti Blood Bank), Rotary Club Hinganghat, Red Ribbon Club, and NSS Unit, with the objective of promoting voluntary blood donation and raising awareness about its significance in saving lives.

The program was chaired by Dr. Umesh Tulaskar and graced by several esteemed guests Mr. Pitambar Chandani (President, Rotary Club Hinganghat) Ms. Manjusha Mule (Secretary, Rotary Club Hinganghat) Dr. Ashok Mukhi, Mr. Shrikant Solankar (Branch Manager, HDFC Bank) Dr. Mahendra Gunde (Principal, Tulaskar College of Pharmacy Hinganghat) Mr. Rakesh Satone (Vice Principal, Tulaskar Institute of Science and Technology, Hinganghat) Dr. Sapna Jaiswal (Vice Principal, Matoshri Ashatai Kunnawar Arts, Commerce & Science Women's College, Hinganghat) Their presence added immense value and encouragement to the noble cause.

The event began with a warm welcome followed by the formal inauguration. Addressing the gathering, Dr. Umesh Tulaskar emphasized the humanitarian importance of blood donation. He highlighted that a single unit of blood has the potential to save multiple lives, and encouraged everyone to contribute to this lifesaving mission. The camp witnessed seamless coordination between the medical team from Jeevan Jyoti Blood Bank and volunteers from the NSS and Red Ribbon Club. Proper safety measures, screening procedures, and donor care were ensured throughout the event. The program was anchored by Prof. Bhagyashree Sabale (NSS Coordinator), maintaining an inspiring and energetic atmosphere.

Faculty members, non-teaching staff, and students participated with great enthusiasm. Their active involvement and willingness to donate blood played a crucial role in making the camp a tremendous success. The event not only collected valuable blood units but also spread awareness about the significance of voluntary blood donation among young students.

The program concluded with a Vote of Thanks delivered by Dr. Sapna Jaiswal, who expressed gratitude to all dignitaries, organizers, volunteers, donors, and collaborating institutions for their wholehearted support in making the event meaningful and impactful.

The Blood Donation Camp served as a remarkable example of social responsibility and humanitarian service. The successful organization of the camp reflects the institute's commitment to community welfare and its continuous efforts to motivate youth toward noble causes.

The Pandurang Tulaskar Group of Institutions continues to uphold the values and vision of Late Shri Pandurangji Tulaskar through such impactful initiatives.
